

I wish to see the FCC change the do-not-call registry to disallow the political parties exemption. In the past two weeks before the election, our household of two, received at least four phone calls per day, mostly recordings, asking us to vote. I believe that voting is important, but these solicitations should not be conducted by phone.